4th October 2018

Our collective Worship focus this term is:

Responsibility

No Parent Assembly

Wiltshire Wildlife Trust 'Waste Watcher' School Challenge

Working in partnership with

Wiltshire Council
Where everybody matters

Following on from letters sent home last week....

To encourage and reward the practice of the 3 R's (Reduce, Reuse and Recycle) at home, WWT are running a challenge between several schools within Calne.

Each child has been given a Waste Watcher Reward Card today by Wiltshire

Wildlife Trust. Students are to complete 3 sets of tasks at home to increase recycling and reduce waste.

Completed cards must be handed in by October 18th

Complete the 3 tasks on the back of the card to earn yourself a special 'Waste Watcher' badge - go the extra mile to be entered into the WWT Waste Team raffle for a chance to win a prize!

Harvest Festival

Thinking ahead to next week, we will be celebrating Harvest Festival in school on Friday 12th.

Please bring any donations into school next Friday morning (12th) and not before as we do not have space to store it. Donations can be left in the School Hall on the benches by the Altar.

This year we will again be collecting for the Calne Food Bank. Below is an example list of food that the food bank use, please do not donate any perishable items.
