

Key Stage 1 Home Learning Pick 'n' Mix Activities

Over the Easter holidays, you may like to try some of these tasks. We hope you enjoy them!

The Exercise Challenge As well as joining in with PE with Joe every morning at 9am – how about an extra challenge to create a mini assault course in your garden that includes 6 different activities to raise your heart rate and stretch those muscles! 	Spot the deliberate mistakes – can you find them all? David quickly threw the football to his friend. The ball was heading straight for the car window. David closed his eyes and felt hopeful it was going to miss. Thankfully it did Once you have corrected it – can you make it more interesting to read?	Oh no George! Enjoy Chris Haughton's brilliant picture book about a dog who is trying to be good - really, really trying, which is read by Eamon Holmes.
Ready Steady Cook! Have a go at making some yummy Easter treats with the BBC Good Food's 43 different recipe ideas for Easter. Choose from Healthy Bunny pancakes, Easter brownie bites, Bunny cupcakes and Easter biscuits! 	Easter Colouring... Colour in the Easter Bunny that is attached below this page. Make it the most colourful bunny you can! Visit the Calm Music Blog and choose a piece of music to listen to that you like as you colour. 	Hit the Button!  Practise Doubling numbers up to 10 and then challenge yourself with numbers up to 15. Put yourself to the test by seeing if you can beat your time!
Creative Writing Imagine you have just walked into your kitchen to find this pink octopus in your sink! Write the story of how the octopus came to be here, and what happens next. 	10 Hopping Fun Facts about Rabbits! As we associate rabbits with the coming festival of Easter, how about amazing your family with these facts about these amazing small mammals... 	Easter Egg Hunt  Organise your own Easter Egg Hunt for inside and out in your garden. Your eggs can be paper instead of chocolate. BBC Good Food have created some fabulous clues for you to use. Please see below...

1

The Easter bunny has laid a trail of gold, and the best place to look is somewhere cold.

2

The second hiding place might be out of sight, but think of somewhere cosy where you sleep at night...

3

A delicious boiled egg is served in a cup, but when you're finished eating where do you wash it up?

4

Lambs have wool, chicks have feathers – what do you wear to keep warm in cold weather?

5

You're nearing the end of the Easter gold rush, now head to the place where you'd find your toothbrush.

6

The end's in sight so take a look – the last clue's hidden in something you'd use to cook.

